STUDENT LIFE - HIGHLIGHT OF THE YEAR -

Ron Schultz - Coach of the Year

It's as easy as this.

Hard at work.

Doing a great job.

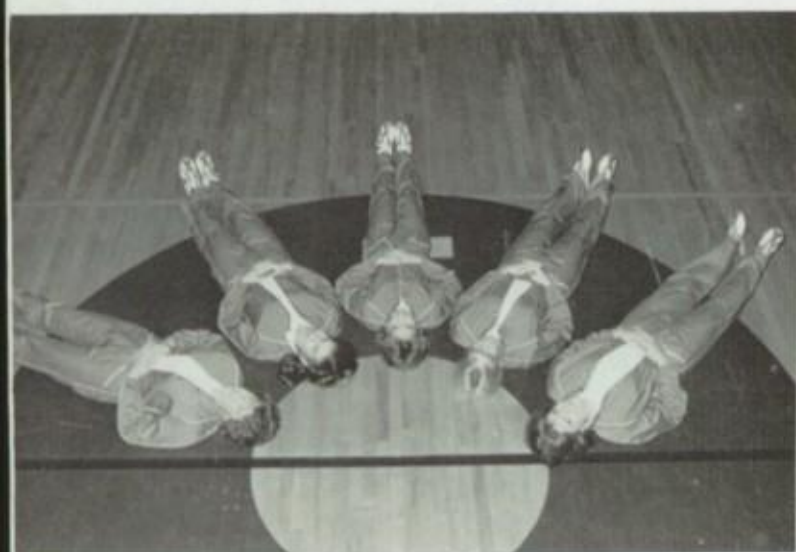

This needs some thought.
Poetry in motion.

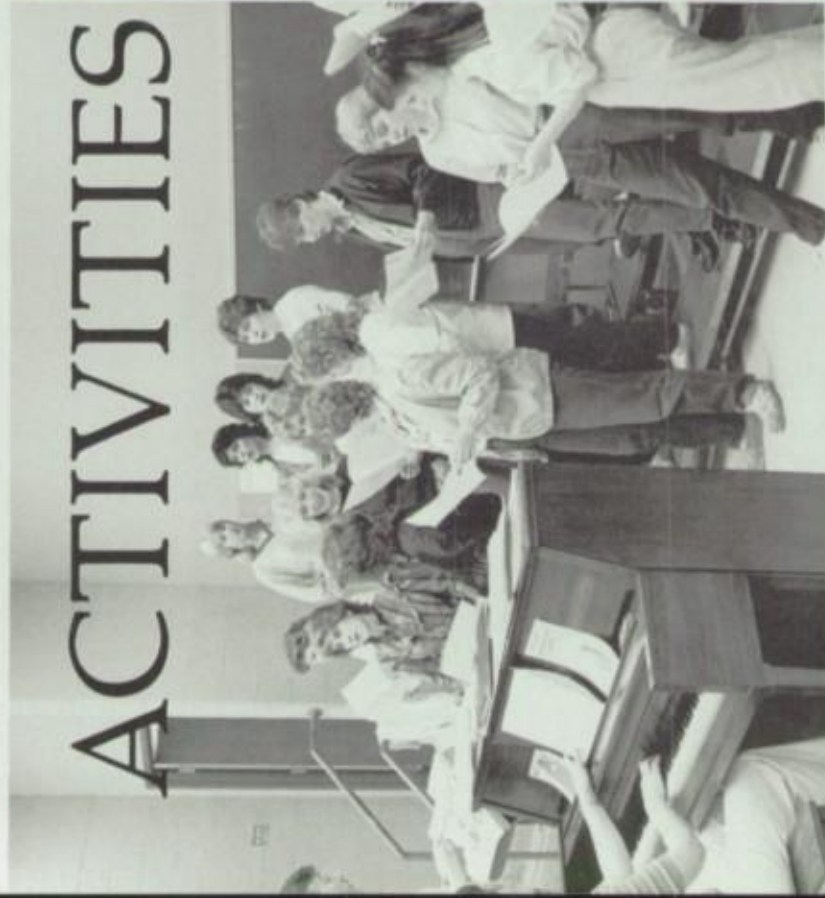

What a curve ball!
Boy am I tired!

It can't really be happening.
What a time to be taking a break!

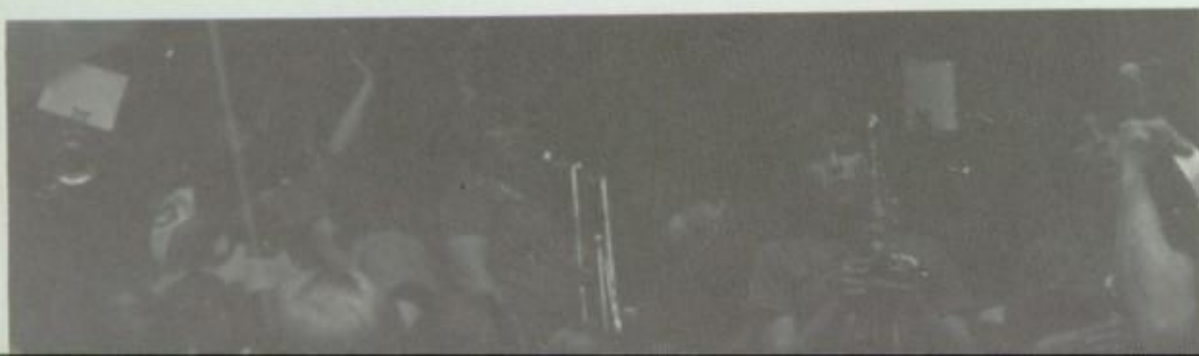

Right Out

Louder Tammy!

Get 'em!

Many people do not appreciate the hard work and dedication that are needed for a successful cheerleading squad. As the captain of this year's cheerleading squad, I can truly say that this year's squad was united, proud, and compatible with each other. These girls always welcomed new ideas eagerly and loved every minute of cheerleading. Of course, the squad had its problems, but once resolved, the squad noticeably improved.

Some of the highlights of the year were cheerleading camp, cheering at the state basketball tournament, and organizing a hospitality room, which was highly acclaimed by the faculty. This squad possessed qualities which are needed for a good squad. Together with hard work, much incentive, and dedication, this squad helped bring spirit back to the student body and pride back into cheerleading. Dawn Larson

Ping Pong

The 1983-84 Snofest took place in January. The Snofest included a three-legged race, ping pong, snow sculpturing, rope pull, jello eating, chess, basketball, handball, volleyball, Altoona skiing, class fued, trivia pursuit, and cross country skiing. Movies were shown in the cafeteria during the day. They included First Blood, Rocky III, and Poltergeist. The Student Council served donuts, pizza, and pop throughout the day. The classes placed as follows: Seniors came in first, Juniors second, Freshman third, and the Sophomores were fourth.

"TONIGHT I CELEBRATE MY LOVE"

When we're not together ...
 my thoughts drift alongside memories of you;
 things we've done
 the way you smile so brightly that helps me forget my worries
 and celebrate our wonders.
 When we're not together ...
 my moods come into play more often and
 make me
 yearn for the strength I feel with you ...
 the security I find in your eyes.
 When we're not together ...
 I sometimes feel so very alone,
 for myself and for you ...
 imagining you being without my loving feelings
 as I am without yours ...
 When we're not together ...
 my best wishes still go with you always,
 wishing to share in your excitements, wanting to comfort your hurts, needing to be reassured that you're keeping warm and well.
 When we're not together ... I seem to spend my time wishing that we were.

To the Class of '84

Lonely I sit-
 Sunset before me-
 Remembering yesterdays.
 Funny how the sunset
 Resembles the past,
 Shades of blue for the sad times,
 The downfalls.
 The times I didn't succeed,
 The times the phone wouldn't ring.
 Lost games,
 Arguments,
 The loss of a friend.
 Those were the blues.
 Violet was my alone times,
 My times of dreams
 And fantasies of tomorrows.
 My ambitions, my plans.
 Would I ever climb high enough?
 The times I spent wondering
 Whether I'd live through it all.
 Those were the violet times.
 The pink was most important.
 Pink was the good times.
 Football games,
 Parties,
 Laughter.
 Pink was the friends-
 So close-
 Sharing wonderful secrets.
 The pink was the love,
 The base of everything important,
 The memories of high school

The sun disappears,
 Stars left as a promise
 Of tomorrow's sunrise,
 As I wonder what colors
 My future will hold ...
